KNIGHT EDUCATIONAL PRODUCTS NOW OFFERS COMPLETE LINE OF STANDARD AND CUSTOM APPAREL FOR ALLIED HEALTH PROGRAMS, SKILLED TRADES

DALLAS, TX (November 16, 2009) – Knight Electronics’ Educational Products Division, a global manufacturer and supplier of medical, trade, and educational products and training equipment, now offers a complete line of standard and custom apparel in a variety of colors and sizes. Ideal for students and professionals in the Allied Health and skilled trade industries, Knight’s apparel products include lab coats, scrubs, work shirts, and instructor/dress shirts, all of which are available from the company’s new online store.

“Standard sizes and colors of all of our apparel are available via our online store, and can be personalized quickly and easily by utilizing the Web site’s new drop-down menus,” said David Luna, vice president of sales and marketing for Knight Educational Products. “While at this time custom apparel products are only available by phone, we will soon be offering online ordering of our custom apparel as well.”
